

Dear Customer,

Millennium Technologies will remain open as an essential supplier in the processing of critical components in accordance with the Presidential guidance issued March 16th that specifically was crafted to address the Covid-19 event.

As specifically detailed by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security – Cyber & Infrastructure Office Memorandum on identifying essential critical infrastructure workers during Covid-19 response, Millennium Technologies identifies itself as a critical supplier to the industrial base of the nation for the transportation, logistics and defense industries.

Furthermore, per the Memorandum issued by the Under Secretary of Defense, Ellen Lord, on March 20, 2020 we are also detailed as a subcontractor that “supports the development, production, testing, fielding, or sustainment of our weapon systems/software systems, or the infrastructure to support those activities, are considered Essential Critical Infrastructure. If your efforts support manning, training, equipping, deploying, or supporting our military forces, your work is considered Essential Critical Infrastructure.”

Millennium Technologies will be following Emergency Order #12 (Safer at Home Order) Wisconsin State Executive Order that identifies as an Essential Business and Operation as detailed in Section 13, subsections a.) CISA List. and subsection v.) Manufacture, distribution, and supply chain for critical products and industries.
